

Indoor Soccer Referee Guide – Getting Started

How do I become an Indoor soccer referee?

1. Make sure you have registered with the Alberta Soccer Association for the current year. The Alberta Soccer Association referee registration form is located at Referee Registration Form or contact Heather Lothian at hlothian@albertasoccer.com.
(albertasoccer.com → Referee → Registration)
2. Take an indoor soccer conversion course. Information on registration, dates, and locations of the course are found at Indoor Conversion Course Information.
(calgarysoccerfederation.com → Referees → Courses and Clinics)
3. Shadow two indoor soccer games. The shadow form will be provided at the indoor conversion course. It is also found at Indoor Referee Shadowing Form.
(calgarysoccerfederation.com → Referees → Forms → Referee Indoor Shadow Form)
4. Congratulations! You are now an indoor soccer referee!

How do I get myself scheduled?

1. Email the referee scheduler at refereescheduler@calgarysc.com after you have taken the indoor conversion course. Notify him/her that you have completed the course and would like to be scheduled. The referee scheduler will add you to Arbiter. Arbiter is the refereeing scheduling program used for soccer in Calgary.
2. Read the Arbiter guide located at Arbiter Guide.
(calgarysoccerfederation.com → Referees → Information → Arbiter Guide)
3. Fill out your availability in Arbiter.

All referee scheduling for indoor soccer within Calgary is completed by the referee scheduler using Arbiter.

What level of games can I do?

1. The level of games that you can referee is based on your local game rating. Local game rating information is located at CSF League Ratings. You can find out your local game rating by emailing referees affairs at refereeaffairs@shaw.ca.
(calgarysoccerfederation.com → Referees → Information → CSF Game Ratings)

What are the game fees for indoor soccer?

1. The game fees for indoor soccer are located at Game Fees.
(calgarysoccerfederation.com → Referees → Information → Game Fees)

How can I improve my game?

1. Join the mentoring program! Email the referee mentor at referees@calgaryminorsoccer.com.
